REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN OF

THE LISBON PUBLIC LIBRARY

The circulation for the Lisbon Public Library during 1938 was 23,395, an average of a little over 449 books for each week. About one-fourth of this was non-fiction, a good deal of which was used in connection with school work, in addition to that which was done in the reference room — the books of which were much used for this purpose during the year. In answering the reference demands, few were turned aside without some material, but much more would have been useful. The deficiencies were noted and it is hoped that during the coming year some of the greatest needs can at least be partially filled.

A small increase in the town's appropriation for library work made it possible to buy more new books during the year and more nearly to keep abreast of those which were in most demand throughout the country. This doubtless accounts in part for an increase of some over 1800 in the year's circulation.

Because of a leave kindly granted by the trustees your librarian was able to attend the summer library school which was held during July at New Hampshire University. This, with her former attendance, entitled her to one of the state certificates of librarianship which were awarded at the close of the session.

During the summer Dr. Erdmann loaned to the town library a collection of books from his own private library and kindly allowed them to be circulated. A good number took advantage of this opportunity and the books were much enjoyed.

Magazines were given to the library by Mrs. W. W. Oliver, Mrs. H. B. Moulton, Mrs. Fred Parker, Mrs. Kate Deming, Mrs. Raymond Lang, Mr. B. S. Webb, Mr. William Bailey, and Mr. Frank Buck. A year's subscription was given to The American Legion, and the D. A. R. donated a year's subscription to the National Historical Magazine. Books were given by Mr. Holmes, Mr. Rothenberger, Mr. O'Gara, Mrs. Sumner Moulton and Friends in Council. All of the above donors are thanked for their contributions.

MILDRED G. CLOUGH, Librarian.

THE RICHARDSON MEMORIAL LIBRARY

SUGAR HILL, N. H.

TO THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES :

The library contains approximately 6,193 volumes, not including government reports and bound magazines. During the past year one hundred and one books have been added by appropriation, and by gift sixty-six.

Periodicals for the reading room and circulation include McCalls, Cosmopolitan, American, Pictorial Review, Saturday Evening Post, Readers' Digest, Ladies' Home Journal, Hygeia, Better Homes and Gardens, News Week, and by gift Country Home, Watchman, Troubadour.

Donors to the library include Miss Dorothy Cornell, Miss Ethel B. Osborn, Mrs. J. Warner Fobes, Mrs. Arthur S. Walcott, Dr. Stuart Paton, Mrs. Louis Pazolt, Miss Helen I. Tefft and Alexander Barbour.

Total number of books and periodicals loaned, 6,813: fiction, 2,708; non-fiction, 1,839; periodicals, 2,266. Attendance, 2,358.

The marked increase in the non-fiction over last year's figures is due to the intensive work in the Sugar Hill school and the university students who summer on Sugar Hill. A study corner has been especially arranged with adequate lighting for the benefit of those who wish to do reference work.

The special fund has enabled us to add twenty-nine books. Among these are books on religion, poetry, biography, and Hammond's New World Atlas and Doubleday's Encyclopedia in eleven volumes.

Mrs. Louis Pazolt has given twenty-five volumes by F. Marion Crawford.

Much appreciation is extended to the Woolson & Clough Insurance Agency for the bookmarks given us.

The librarian attended the regional meeting held at Lincoln in September. The next meeting will be held at our Library, the date to be announced.

Present plans for improving the library this spring include a project to be carried out by the children of the grammar room of the Sugar Hill school. They will do interior decorating in the children's room, and landscaping in the way of flower gardens. The project will be executed under the community civics unit.

To everyone who in any way has contributed to the welfare of the library I extend my sincere appreciation.

Respectfully submitted,

JERUSHA E. PARKER, Librarian,

MARION S. BOY, Assistant.
